Registration begins today for BCPS Virtual Learning Program for 2021-2022 school year

Family Information Sessions, website offer more information

Towson, MD –Registration begins today for Baltimore County Public Schools’ Virtual Learning Program for the 2021-2022 school year. Family Information Sessions about the program will take place this evening and tomorrow evening.

“The Virtual Learning Program is an option for those families that need it,” said BCPS Superintendent Dr. Darryl L. Williams. “We are looking forward to seeing the vast majority of our students back in their classrooms, full-time, five days a week throughout the 2021-2022 school year -- pending the latest health and safety guidelines.”

The BCPS Virtual Learning Program, for students in Kindergarten through Grade 12, will provide full-time virtual instruction from BCPS staff, including live (synchronous) instruction and anytime (asynchronous) learning. Students enrolling in the BCPS Virtual Learning Program will also remain enrolled in their BCPS school. As a BCPS student, they may participate in meals, sports, extracurricular activities, and other opportunities.

Online registration for the Virtual Learning Program will take place from Wednesday, May 19, through Monday, May 31. Families who register for the Virtual Learning Program will be asked to commit for the full school year. A list of courses that will NOT be offered in the Virtual Learning Program is available.

Families interested in the Virtual Learning Program are invited to attend a Family Information Session to learn more about the program's benefits and limitations (such as which classes will be available). No registration is required for the online information sessions, and links for the sessions are provided in this release.

Sessions will be offered:

Wednesday, May 19, from 6:30 – 7:30 p.m. -- Virtual Learning Program Family Information Session in English

Thursday, May 20, from 4:30 – 5:30 p.m. – Virtual Learning Program Family Information Session in Spanish

Thursday, May 20, from 6 – 7 p.m. – Virtual Learning Program Family Information Session – multilingual (The meeting code for this session is BCPSmulti, and participants must use a BCPS student email address to log in. Translators will be available to assist with Arabic, Chinese, Nepali, and Urdu. Other languages available by request to adregier@bcps.org.)

In addition to the information sessions, families can find additional information on the website and can send questions to VLP@bcps.org at any time.
