Dulaney High, Franklin High students to be honored with Mildred Murray All-Academic Scholar-Athlete Award and Scholarship

Seniors Kiersten Hartman and Vinay Khosla to be recognized

What: Kiersten Hartman of Franklin High School and Vinay Khosla of Dulaney High School have been named winners of the 34th annual Mildred Murray All Academic Scholar Athlete Award and Scholarship. Presented by the Baltimore County Public Schools' Office of Athletics, the prestigious honors will be awarded during a private ceremony at BCPS administrative offices.

When: Friday, June 11, at 1:30 p.m.

Where: Baltimore County Public Schools administrative offices
Greenwood Campus, 6901 N. Charles St., Building E, 21204

Background: The scholarships are given to female and male senior student-athletes who have maintained a minimum 3.5 unweighted grade point average for each quarter and have participated in at least two varsity sports. Each BCPS high school nominates seniors for this honor.

Hartman participated in soccer, basketball, and lacrosse, and Khosla participated in cross country, and indoor and outdoor track.

The annual countywide scholar-athlete award is named in honor of the late Mildred H. Murray, former BCPS coordinator of physical education and athletics.

She dedicated 43 years to promoting excellence in athletics and academics throughout the county, region, and state, and she helped establish the annual scholar-athlete award.
