Students are sought to serve on Baltimore County Junior Councils, Baltimore County Student Councils executive boards and committees

Applications due by 11:59 p.m. on Saturday, June 19

Towson, MD – Want to make a difference in Baltimore County Public Schools? Want your voice to be heard? Want to grow as a student leader? Students interested in countywide leadership roles are encouraged to apply now for positions on the Baltimore County Junior Councils (BCJC) and Baltimore County Student Councils (BCSC) executive boards and committees. The application deadline is 11:59 p.m. on Saturday, June 19.

Positions with BCJC, a new middle school leadership organization, are open to students who will be in Grades 6 – 8 during the 2021-2022 school year. Positions with BCSC, a high school leadership organization, are open to students who will be in Grades 9 – 12 during the 2021-2022 school year.

“We invite every BCPS student interested in leadership and interested in contributing to improving the school system to apply for these openings,” said Samantha Warfel, BCSC president and a Grade 10 student at Hereford High School. “We want to involve diverse students from every area of the county so that all student voices are being heard.”

Please note that, for both BCSC and BCJC, executive board members are required to attend all monthly executive board meetings and General Assembly meetings. Committee members are required to attend monthly committee meetings. In addition, BCSC executive board members are required to attend the BCSC Fall Leadership Workshop. Dates and times for BCSC and BCJC meetings and events will be announced soon.

Applications for all positions require a letter of recommendations from school student council advisors. Successful applicants may be invited to participate in virtual interviews.
