Towson, MD – The Baltimore County School Board Nominating Commission was created and went into effect October 1, 2017. In accordance with Md. Code, Educ. § 3-2B-03, the purpose of the Commission is to select nominees to be recommended to the governor as qualified candidates for appointment to the Board of Education of Baltimore County, a hybrid board consisting of elected and appointed members.

Of the Commission's 19 members, the governor will appoint one commission member from each of the county's eight legislative districts. In addition, the county executive will appoint one commission member from the county at-large. Finally, each of the 10 organizations specified in the law will name one commission member. Those organizations include the: Teachers Association of Baltimore County; Baltimore County Chamber of Commerce; PTA Council of Baltimore County, Inc.; Towson University; League of Women Voters of Baltimore County; Baltimore County Branch of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People; Special Education Citizens' Advisory Council; Baltimore County Student Councils; Council of Administrative and Supervisory Employees; and Education Support Professionals of Baltimore County.

Individuals seeking appointment to the Commission should express their interest to the Office of the Governor, County Executive, or one of the 10 identified organizations.
