School Board Nominating Commission to Hold Public Information Sessions

Towson, MD – The Baltimore County School Board Nominating Commission will hold two more virtual public information sessions to give the public an opportunity to speak about its views and thoughts regarding the county’s Board of Education. The Commission is charged with recommending to the governor nominees for appointment to the Board of Education of Baltimore County. The public hearing will also permit stakeholders to gain a greater understanding of the hybrid School Board and the process in which the School Board Nominating Commission will follow to select nominees. The meetings will be held virtually on Tuesday, January 18, and Wednesday, January 26, 2022, both at 7 p.m.

Members of the public are welcome to view or listen to the open session of the Commission meeting online via Zoom or by phone at 1-301-715-8592.
