“Art is for Everyone” exhibition returns to the Baltimore Museum of Art

See student artwork hanging in the galleries of one of Baltimore’s premier museums

What: Following a pause due to the COVID-19 pandemic, artwork by Baltimore County Public Schools’ students will once again be seen in person in the Baltimore Museum of Art for the 34th annual “Art is for Everyone” exhibition. The exhibition will feature more than 260 artworks from 120 schools, including drawings, sculptures, mixed media, photography, digital art, paintings, and collaborative creations from students in PreKindergarten through Grade 12. Please note that the Baltimore Museum of Art has a mandatory mask policy, and timed tickets are required for any visit. Admission to the museum is free, but it is not guaranteed without a pass.

When: Exhibition: Wednesday, March 16 – Sunday, March 20, 2022. Museum hours are 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. on Wednesday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday and 10 a.m. – 9 p.m. on Thursday.

Meet and Greet for participants and their families: Sunday, March, 20, 2022, from 1 – 4 p.m.

Where: The Baltimore Museum of Art, 10 Art Museum Drive, Baltimore 21218 (Street parking is available around the museum as well as paid parking on the BMA grounds.)
