BCPS Student Choreography Showcase now available for online viewing

Features 24 pieces choreographed and performed by students from 8 schools

Towson, MD – The countywide Baltimore County Public Schools’ Student Choreography Showcase is now available for online viewing.

The showcase features 24 dance works that were choreographed and performed by students from:

- Dundalk High School
- George Washington Carver Center for Arts and Technology
- Middle River Middle School
- Milford Mill Academy
- New Town High School
- Owings Mills High School
- Parkville High School
- Patapsco High School and Center for the Arts

Participating students spent a day in March at the Gordon Center for Performing Arts in Owings Mills working with professional teaching artists from ClancyWorks Dance Company for a masterclass and for the adjudication and filming of each work.

“Congratulations to all our student choreographers and dancers for this year who persevered in the creation of these works for virtual presentation,” said Sonia Synkowski, BCPS dance resource teacher. “Thank you for your support of our BCPS dance programs – and enjoy the show!”
