Second community forum scheduled to review options for improving northeast Baltimore County high schools

Online community meeting slated for April 6

What: Baltimore County Public Schools will hold the second of its two scheduled community forums to review options and solicit feedback on how best to improve buildings, enhance school use, and provide capacity relief for high schools in the county's northeast areas. The forums are part of a long-term study on planning for improvement in the county's high schools. Schools under study in the northeast include Kenwood, Loch Raven, Overlea, Parkville, and Perry Hall high schools.

When: The 90-minute community forum will be virtual and will begin at 6:30 p.m. on Wednesday, April 6, 2022. Additional information about the forums and how to join them may be found at Northeast Area High School Study website.
