BCPS celebrates the Class of 2022 with graduating senior profiles

Towson, MD – Baltimore County Public Schools is celebrating its 2022 graduating seniors by presenting a profile of one student from each high school.

A new profile appears on the home page of the BCPS website each school day until the last day of school for seniors, Friday, May 20. All profiles that have been posted can be found on the BCPS blog.

“We are so pleased to take every opportunity we can to celebrate the resilient and dedicated Class of 2022,” said BCPS Superintendent Dr. Darryl L. Williams. “These young people have had a high school experience like no other, and yet, despite the disruptions, they have continued to demonstrate excellence in their studies and commitment to their diverse interests.”

Student profiled the first week include a Lansdowne High senior and Questbridge scholar headed to Yale University; a New Town High senior who aspires to become a neuroscientist/neurosurgeon; a Kenwood High senior whose internship at a local marina might become a full-time job; a Sparrows Point High senior and Mexican immigrant who plans to study civil engineering and to give back to communities in Mexico; and an Eastern Technical High senior and podcaster who will be attending the University of Maryland Interdisciplinary Business Honors College as a Banneker/Key Scholar.
