Dulaney, Owings Mills high school students to be honored with Mildred Murray All-Academic Scholar-Athlete Award and Scholarship

Seniors Brian Hwang and Dhruvi Sheth to be recognized in private ceremony

What: Brian Hwang of Dulaney High School and Dhruvi Sheth of Owings Mills High School have been named winners of the 35th annual Mildred Murray All-Academic Scholar-Athlete Award and Scholarship. Presented by the Baltimore County Public Schools' Office of Athletics, the prestigious honor will be awarded during a private ceremony at BCPS administrative offices.

When: Thursday, May 26, at 1:00 p.m.

Where: Baltimore County Public Schools administrative offices
Greenwood Campus, 6901 N. Charles St., Building A, 21204

Background: The scholarships are given to senior student-athletes who have maintained a minimum 3.5 unweighted grade point average for each quarter and have participated in at least two varsity sports. Each BCPS high school nominates seniors for this honor.

Hwang participated in badminton and tennis. Sheth from Owings Mills participated in soccer, basketball, lacrosse, and track.

The annual countywide scholar-athlete award is named in honor of the late Mildred H. Murray, former BCPS coordinator of physical education and athletics. She dedicated 43 years to promoting excellence in athletics and academic throughout the county, region, and state, and she helped establish the annual scholar-athlete award.
