Community organizations can once again request to use BCPS facilities for indoor activities

Towson, MD – Effective Tuesday, July 27, 2021, community organizations interested in using Baltimore County Public Schools’ indoor facilities are authorized to submit requests through Event Manager.

Additional information related to the use of BCPS facilities, including the relevant Board policy and rule, list of prohibited activities, and crowd manager training, can be found on the Use of Facilities website. On the same page, interested parties can view a video that walks users through the application process under the Community Resources tab.
