Other high school students and families also welcome

Towson, MD – The Seventh Annual Baltimore County Public Schools Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU) College Fair is fast approaching!

The college fair will be held on Saturday, October 14, from 10 a.m. – 2 p.m., at New Town High School, 4931 New Town Blvd., Owings Mills 21117.

Registration through StriveScan is open to all BCPS high school students and their families. Participants are also strongly encouraged to complete the Common Black College Application prior to the event. School counselors and college counselors are available to help with registration and application. (Those who register who need assistance in traveling to the event are asked to complete a transportation request survey.)

“While this college fair is open to all high school students, we are especially hopeful that seniors and their families will participate,” said BCPS Superintendent Dr. Myriam Rogers (Yarbrough). “This fair is an outstanding opportunity for students to learn more about higher education options, whether or not they are focused on attending an HBCU.”

At the fair, students can meet college admissions representatives from HBCUs and participate in workshops related to the college selection process, college admissions, financial aid, and college life. Drop-in support for college application essay writing will be offered throughout the day. This year’s fair will also include special BCPS HBCU Homecoming performances by Woodlawn High School’s Scarlet Legion Marching Band and New Town High School’s cheerleading team.
