Parents/families, school staff invited to participate in online discussions about the BCPS school counseling program

What: Baltimore County Public Schools is transforming its school counseling program to make the program even more accessible, relevant, and effective. Parents/families and school staff are invited to participate in online Microsoft Teams discussions to offer feedback about their experiences with the current school counseling program and ideas for the future. The meetings will be hosted by Dr. Kim Ferguson, executive director, Department of Social-Emotional Support Services; Patricia Mustipher, director, Office of Student Support; and MaatenRe Ramin, coordinator, Office of School Counseling.

Those not available to participate in the online discussions can submit comments via an online survey.
