U.S. Deputy Secretary of Energy to tour Watershed Public Charter School, announce new funding for Renew America's Schools Program

What: U.S. Deputy Secretary of Energy David M. Turk will tour Watershed Public Charter School with Baltimore County Public Schools Superintendent Dr. Myriam Rogers. Following the tour, Deputy Secretary Turk will make an announcement regarding the Renew America's Schools program, which supports infrastructure improvements in schools, with a focus on local education agencies that qualify as rural and/or high poverty. Watershed Public Charter School is one of the round one recipients of the 2022-2023 Renew America's Schools grant, made possible by the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law.

Deputy Secretary Turk's visit will highlight how President Biden's Investing in America agenda is creating healthier learning environments, lowering utility costs, and helping school districts redirect funds to support students and teachers.
